

Dark Labyrinths

Across

1. passageways that allow fresh air into an area and stale air out
5. fancy light fixtures that hang from ceilings
8. icicle-shaped mineral deposits that hang from the roof of a cave
9. people who design buildings and make sure they are built properly
13. a person's existence after he or she has died
15. a set of winding, connected pathways in which it is easy to get lost
16. how well sound can be carried or heard in a room
18. a story handed down from long ago that is often based on some facts but cannot be proven true
19. a disease that spreads quickly and often kills many people
20. the native people of New Zealand
21. the explosive force of one million tons (907,185 metric tons) of dynamite
22. people from the Mongol Empire, which stretched through Asia and parts of Europe during the 1200s and 1300s
23. to burn a dead body to ashes

Down

2. having to do with a type of energy that is produced by splitting atoms
3. natural or artificial holding areas for storing water
4. a group of parts joined together, such as a group of buildings or tunnels
6. scientists who learn about ancient times by studying things they dig up, such as old buildings and tools
7. cone-shaped mineral deposits that build up on the floor of a cave
10. spacecraft that are sent into outer space to gather and send back information to Earth
11. a confusing group of paths that is set up like a puzzle
12. a grave, room, or building designed to house a dead body
14. a colorless, odorless, flammable gas often found in mines
17. a building or room used for praying