SATURN

A diagram of the outer solar system. At the top is a green curved border with white stars. Below it, three planets are shown on their orbits against a black starry background. Saturn is on the left, Uranus in the middle, and Neptune on the right. Each planet is labeled with its name. Saturn's label is yellow, while Uranus' and Neptune's are pink. The orbits are represented by thin grey lines.

NEPTUNE

URANUS

It's the sixth planet
from the Sun.
