Teaching Tips

BEFORE READING

- Discuss what a biography is. What kinds of things might a biography tell a reader?
- Look through the glossary together. Read and discuss the words.
- Go on a picture walk, looking through the pictures to discuss vocabulary and make predictions about the text.

DURING READING

- Encourage readers to point to each word as it is read. Stop occasionally to ask readers to point to a specific word in the text.
- If a reader encounters an unknown word, ask them to look at the rest of the page. Are there any clues to help them understand?

AFTER READING

- Check for understanding.
 - ▶ Where did Ruth Bader Ginsburg grow up?
 - ▶ What does she do?
 - ▶ What does she care about?
- Ask the readers to think deeper.
 - ▶ If you met Ruth, what question would you like to ask her? Why?

Ruth's Life

Ruth grew up in New York.

She looked up to her mother, Celia.

Celia helped Ruth learn to be strong.
