

The Takedown of Osama bin Laden

Special Ops Series • Glossary Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. to tell who someone is
4. people whose job it is to collect and study information about an enemy
6. a quick surprise attack
8. illegally took control of
11. abbreviation for Federal Bureau of Investigation; an organization that looks into violations of federal law for the United States Department of Justice
14. people who know a lot about a subject
16. abbreviation for Central Intelligence Agency; an American organization that gathers information in foreign countries for the U.S. government
18. a high-level adviser who works closely with the president on matters having to do with other countries
19. a person who carries messages
20. a collection of groups that work together
21. a fenced-in area with buildings inside
22. buildings that hold the offices of the representatives of other countries

Down

2. people who are on the run from police or other law enforcement officers
3. a room in the White House with high-tech audio and video equipment, where top officials can meet to keep track of important events
5. a group of parts joined together, such as a group of buildings or tunnels
7. a person who uses violence and threats to achieve his or her goals
9. one of the world's major religions; its followers are called Muslims
10. objects or information that can be used to prove whether something is true
12. papers that contain information
13. fighters who use speed and surprise
15. a military and political group that ruled Afghanistan from 1996 to 2001
17. the terrorist group that was responsible for the September 11 attacks on the United States