Meet a sea otter pup

A mother sea otter and her pup are floating in the ocean.

The mother otter is resting on her back.

What is a sea otter?

Sea otters are animals that live in the ocean.

They are about as big as a medium-size dog.

Sea otters have very thick fur.

The fur helps keep the otter's body warm and dry in the cold water.

Sea Otter Pups

As soon as her pup is born, a sea otter mom rests the newborn on her tummy as they float in the sea. She will hold her baby much of the time until it is old enough to swim and hunt for shellfish. Look inside to discover how this cute furry pup grows up and eventually leaves its mom to make a life of its own.
