THE DARK UNDERGROUND

You enter an elevator. The doors shut behind you. Down the elevator sinks until you're deep underground. When the doors open, you see something in the distance. It looks like a young girl holding a candle. She whispers your name. Will you follow her into the darkness?

Get ready to read four terrifying tales about dark underground places.
Turn the page . . . if you have the nerve!

A GHOSTLY SECRET

Jeddo Mine, Hazleton, Pennsylvania

It was 1904 in the town of Hazleton. Deep underground, coal miners pounded away at the rock. Suddenly, the ceiling of the mine gave way. The heavy stones struck a young miner, crushing him.

The other miners tried to help the injured man. They held him in their arms. The man's lips moved, but he was too weak to speak. Then he drew his last breath.
