Thanksgiving

A close-up photograph of a Thanksgiving dinner spread. In the foreground, a large white bowl is filled with golden-brown, crispy stuffing. A silver spoon with a wooden handle is stuck into the stuffing. To the right, a white gravy boat is filled with brown gravy. In the bottom right corner, a glass bowl contains bright red cranberry sauce. Next to it, a small white bowl holds fresh green beans. In the background, a person wearing a green shirt is visible, and another person's hand is seen holding a red ribbon. The setting appears to be a dining table with a wooden background.

What day is it?

It is Thanksgiving!

It is Thanksgiving.

I see the table.

It is Thanksgiving.

I see the yams.
