A Stormy Day

Look!
It is stormy.

Today is stormy.

I see a big cloud.

A close-up, slightly out-of-focus photograph of a rainy day. In the foreground on the right, a bright yellow raincoat sleeve is visible, covered in water droplets. The background is a blurred outdoor scene featuring a building with green-framed windows, a dark tree trunk, and a wooden bench. Numerous vertical streaks of rain are visible throughout the image, creating a sense of motion and atmosphere.

Today is stormy.

I see a rain jacket.
