A Drink of Pink Ink

Benjamin Fink
was trying to think.

Where did he put his jar
of pink ink?

It wasn't down in his big dirty sink.

Teaching Tips

Before Reading

- ✓ Introduce rhyming words and the -ink word family to readers.
- ✓ Guide readers on a “picture walk” through the text by asking them to name the things shown.
- ✓ Discuss book structure by showing children where text will appear consistently on pages. Highlight the supportive pattern of the book.

During Reading

- ✓ Encourage readers to “read with your finger” and point to each word as it is read. Stop periodically to ask children to point to a specific word in the text.
- ✓ Reading strategies: When encountering unknown words, prompt readers with encouraging cues such as:
 - Does that word look like a word you already know?
 - Does it rhyme with another word you have already read?

After Reading

- ✓ Write the key words on index cards.
 - Have readers match them to pictures in the book.
- ✓ Ask readers to identify their favorite page in the book. Have them read that page aloud.
- ✓ Choose an -ink word. Ask children to pick a word that rhymes with it.
- ✓ Ask children to create their own rhymes using -ink words. Encourage them to use the same pattern found in the book.
