Lumpy, Bumpy Aliens

They are lumpy and bumpy. They are knobby and spotty. They have big googly eyestalks. What on Earth are they? Outer-space aliens made from gourds! But with a little creepy crafting, you can turn them into funny extraterrestrials to decorate your house for an alien-themed party.

YOU WILL NEED

- Gourds
- Acrylic paints
- Paintbrushes
- A pencil
- Thin foam sheets
- Scissors
- Duct tape
- Pipe cleaners
- A pumpkin carving tool designed to make holes
- Tacky glue
- Googly eyes
- Small foam balls

Choose a gourd to decorate. Try to pick a gourd with a flat bottom so it will stand up. Paint the gourd and allow it to dry. Then, paint on a second coat to completely cover the gourd.

If you want, paint some designs onto your gourd with another color.

To make the gourd alien's hands, draw the shapes you want in pencil onto the foam sheet and cut them out.

Cut a pipe cleaner in half and tape one hand to the end of each half of the pipe cleaner.
